

Writing Tip* – Transition Words

Use this tip if you want to... connect ideas in your writing and make it sound professional.

A transition word is a word used at the beginning of a sentence that helps connect your ideas and thoughts. These words also make your writing more fluid and easy to read. There are several categories of transition words that you can use below.

To give more information	To introduce a point or topic	To compare or contrast	To give an example	To continue a story or an idea
Also,	First,	However,	Specifically,	Next,
Furthermore,	To begin,	Similarly,	For instance,	Afterward,
In addition,	Therefore,	In comparison,	For example,	Finally,
		In contrast,		At last,
				Then,